Six Strands... One Spirit The DNA of Sunbeam

The Sunbeam DNA is woven from six enduring strands - Gratitude, Service, Adaptability to Technology and New Practices, Rootedness in Tradition, Health & Well Being, and Sustainability - all held together by one unifying spirit that defines who we are. These strands shape every Sunbeam learner and leader, guiding our choices, enriching our classrooms, and empowering our journey forward. Each page of this calendar brings alive one strand, celebrating how Sunbeam blends heritage with innovation, compassion with courage, and purpose with responsibility.

Together, they form the DNA of Sunbeam.

Service

When a little Sunbeam says 'Choose Eco, Not Ego,' the grown-ups listen and learn! Service can be the tiny hands that give paper bags to a vendor, or take up the charge of cleaning the surroundings... At Sunbeam, service is not just about giving back to the world, it's about active citizenship and the responsibility to drive change. It is interwoven in the way of life at school, as sacrosanct as the Jai Hind!

Rooted in Tradition

Situated on the banks of the Ganga, Varanasi stands as an eternal testimony to culture and tradition. The vibrant hues of this rich heritage permeate every aspect of the Sunbeam ethos. Celebrating festivals at school, understanding the customs and respecting the thought behind them forges the connect between the roots and the wings. Sunbeams are future ready because they value and understand their past!

Sustainability

One Earth, 'let's care and share' guides the practices in every Sunbeam school. The assemblies and classrooms are forums where sustainability is discussed and advocated. Student agency can be seen in the drives for a polythene free campus, conserving water and electricity, and opting for bicycles rather than fuel-consuming modes of transport. Conserving resources, reusing and recycling to reduce wastage, and eco-consciousness ensures that Sunbeams are ambassadors of a healthy planet!
